Bout III—Bennie is being primed for a bout with a near contender for the world's lightweight title. But success has gone to his head and he breaks training when Helen Graham becomes angry with him. He falls into the clutches of Vera Vale, a violet vamp, and visits all the night resorts of Broadway. He is in bad condition for the fight when Vera asks him to throw it to his opponent so that she can win a bet. He trains but it is too late. He gets into the ring and finds that he has lost his K. O. punch. He is almost defeated when Tammany Young, his trainer, works a ruse. He tells Bennie that Helen Graham, his old sweetheart is in danger, and Bennie knocks out his man in less than a minute. Bennie rushes to Helen's home and finds out that the only danger she feared was that she would lose him.
